Coffee Hour Caution

...advice for older adults greeting young adults in Unitarian Universalist churches

- Avoid saying:

"How old are you?"

Why: Is age so important? There's no good answer. Just avoid this one altogether.

"What did you think of the service today?"

🗶 - Avoid saying:

"Are you new here?"

Why: A young adult may have been attending for years, you just haven't met them. This implies you think they don't belong in the church.

"I don't think we've met, my name is..."

🗶 - Avoid saying:

"When are you planning to have kids?"

Why: Having or not having kids is a private matter and not one people may want to discuss. This implies you only value young adults for their future children, not as a peer adult, here and now.

- Sav instead:

"What brought you here today?"

🗶 - Avoid saying:

"What do you do? / What year are you in school?"

Why: For those who are un- or under-employed, work is a tricky question - and assuming someone is a student implies you think they are a certain age. Give them the chance to talk about whatever is meaningful, which might not be school or a job.

✓ - Say instead:

"So tell me about yourself."

🗶 - Avoid saying:

"We need more young people!"

Why: Like everyone else, young adults want to be seen for who they are rather than as a token for their age group.

- Say instead: "Great to meet you!"

- Avoid saying:

"Have you met our other young adult?"

Why: Young adults enjoy friends of all ages. Welcome them into the community of faith and fellowship.

- Say instead:

"Can I introduce you to my friend?"

DO: Introduce yourself • Make friends • Be interested • Reach out • Respect boundaries
